

Logan Steiner
Official Bio

Logan is the award-winning and USA Today bestselling author of AFTER ANNE (HarperCollins 2023), which tells the story of Anne of Green Gables author Lucy Maud Montgomery. Logan also writes a weekly Substack newsletter called The Creative Sort. Her writing has appeared in Lit Hub, Writers Digest, Parents Magazine, 5280 Magazine, Nerd Daily, Electric Lit, and Women Writers, Women Books.

After graduating from Pomona College and Harvard Law School, Logan clerked for three federal judges, spent six years in Big Law, and served for three years as an Assistant United States Attorney. She now specializes in brief writing at a boutique law firm. Logan lives in Denver with her husband, daughter, and the cranky old man of the house, a Russian Blue cat named Taggart.
